Summer

Giuseppe Arcimboldo (1477 – 1523)

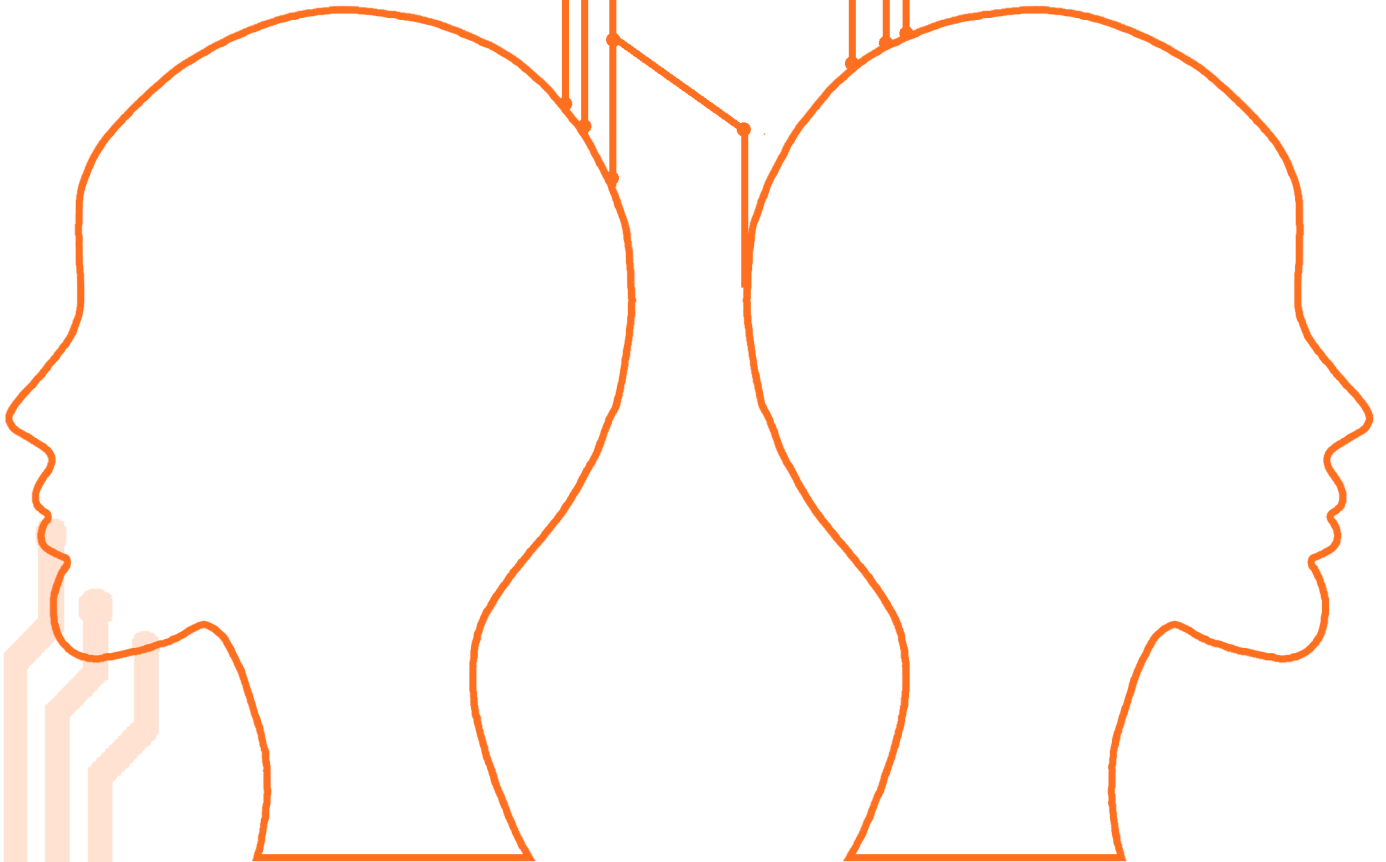

Arcimboldo painted lots of fabulous faces like these. But why? Some people think it was to make people laugh!

Here, the face is made up of summer fruits and produce. Which fruits or vegetables can you spot?

Why not have a go at making your own?

What could you use for the the nose? The eyes?

Fed up with fruit? Could you try vehicles? Flowers? Or something else...
